CASE NO. C08-5326RBL

ORDER DENYING PENDING
MOTIONS

18 This case has been referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§
19 636(b) (1) (A) and 636(b) (1) (B) and Local Magistrate Judge's Rules MJR 1, MJR 3, and MJR
20 4. The matter is before the court on three motions filed by plaintiff: (1) a motion for 21 reconsideration of an order denying a motion to compel discovery, (Dkt. # 50); (2) a motion to 22 extend the deadlines in the scheduling order (Dkt. # 51); and (3) a motion to re-open discovery
23 (Dkt. # 52). Defendants have responded to the motions in one document (Dkt # 55). Plaintiff
24 has replied (Dkt # 56). These three motions are ripe for consideration.
25

26 The court has carefully reviewed the file in this case. The review discloses that this action was commenced on May 14, 2008, (Dkt. # 1). Plaintiff's motion for In Forma Pauperis

1 status was denied August 1, 2008, (Dkt. # 6). He paid the filing fee on August 21, 2008.

2 Plaintiff served some of the defendants and an answer was filed November 25, 2008, (Dkt # 12).

3 Seven of the ten members of a review committee that denied plaintiff's request for referral to an
4 orthopedic surgeon were not served.

5 A Scheduling Order issued on November 28, 2008, (Dkt # 13). Even though the action
6 had been pending for half a year, the court gave the parties three additional months to complete
7 discovery. Thus, the parties had nearly nine months to propound discovery requests.

8 Defendants filed a motion for summary judgment in December of 2008, (Dkt. # 14).
9 Rather than addressing the motion for summary judgment on the merits, Plaintiff filed three 10 motions, (Dkt # 16, 17, 19). Plaintiff asked the court to stay the motion for summary judgment
11 until discovery was complete, he asked for leave to depose Dr. Champoux, a non-party, and he 12 asked for appointment of counsel. The motion to stay and motion for counsel were denied, and 13 the motion to depose Dr. Champoux was granted (Dkt # 26). In denying the motion to stay, the 14 court noted that several of the allegations in the complaint were time barred. The defendants had 15 raised the statute of limitations in the motion for summary judgment. (Dkt. # 14, page 5).

17 On February 19, 2009, the court entered a Report and Recommendation addressing the 18 motion for summary judgment (Dkt # 27). That Report and Recommendation was adopted
19 March 23, 2009, (Dkt # 33). Defendant Devon Schrum was dismissed with prejudice. The same
20 day defendant Schrum was dismissed, plaintiff filed a motion seeking to compel discovery.
21 Included in the discovery sent to the court was discovery addressed to former defendant Schrum
22 (Dkt. # 36). Plaintiff asked defendant Schrum for the last known residential address and 23 telephone numbers of ten named defendants in this action. Three of those defendants, Russell
24 Amaru, Lynn Larson, and Robert Morris, had accepted service and are represented by counsel.

1 Mrs. Schrum responded to each of the ten requests by informing plaintiff that she did not know
2 the information sought and did not have access to the personnel files of these people.

3 The court denied the motion to compel reasoning that a large portion of the action was 4 time barred and had been dismissed. Defendants should not be compelled to answer discovery or 5 provide requests for production of documents on issues that were no longer properly in the case.
6 Further, defendant Schrum had answered the interrogatory regarding addresses and telephone
7 numbers. She does not have the information plaintiff is seeking and does not have access to 8 personnel files (Dkt. # 45). Plaintiff has now filed a motion for reconsideration and states he 9 cannot serve seven of the ten members of the committee that denied him a referral to an 10 orthopedic surgeon without this information.
11

12 Motions for reconsideration are disfavored. See Local Rule 7(h). The motion will 13 generally be denied absent manifest error or a change in the law or facts. Defendant Schrum
14 informed plaintiff she did not have the information he was seeking and did not have access to 15 personnel files (Dkt. # 36, interrogatories to Devon Schrum and answers and objections thereto).
16 Plaintiff now argues this response is disingenuous as she or her attorney has access to this 17 information. The court disagrees. Interrogatories are sent to a defendant, not defendant and their 18 counsel. It is the defendants' responsibility to answer them based on their knowledge, not the 19 knowledge of counsel. Further, this court does not assume Mrs. Schrum has access to the 20 personnel files of co-workers. The access to files of this nature which contain sensitive and 21 private information would naturally be restricted. There are no grounds for reconsideration of 22 the prior order in this case.

25 Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration focuses on the issue of service of process. Plaintiff
26 argues he needs addresses and telephone numbers to serve this action on named defendants. The

1 court will address that issue in detail. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 (m) gives a party 120 days to serve a
2 named defendant. This action was filed May 14, 2008 (Dkt. #1), however, it would be unfair to
3 use that date as the starting date for the 120 day period as plaintiff had a pending motion to 4 proceed In Forma Pauperis before the court.

5 On August 1, 2009, the motion to proceed In Forma Pauperis was denied. This should
6 have placed plaintiff on notice he needed to serve his complaint. Plaintiff had until November
7 29, 2008, to properly serve this complaint. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 (m) indicates that if
8 service of a summons and complaint is not made within 120 days of filing the court shall dismiss
9 without prejudice unless the plaintiff can show good cause why service was not made within that 10 time. Ignorance of the rules is not good cause. Townsel v. County of Contra Costa, 820 F.2d
11 319, 320 (9th Cir.1987).

12 The above analysis and a plain reading of the rule would appear to indicate that any 13 person who has not been served should be dismissed without prejudice. The standard of review
14 is abuse of discretion, which indicates the court has discretion in deciding if dismissal is proper.
15 Wei v. State of Hawaii, 763 F.2d 370, 371 (9th Cir. 1985).

16 The Ninth Circuit has indicated that failure to comply with the service requirements does 17 not mandate dismissal and the rule should be given liberal and flexible construction as long as 18 the defendant receives sufficient notice of the complaint. United Food & Commercial Workers
19 Union v. Alpha Beta Co., 736 F.2d 1371, 1382 (9th Cir. 1984). Failure to follow technical 20 requirements does not warrant dismissal where “(a) the party that had to be served personally
21 received actual notice, (b) the defendants would suffer no prejudice from the defect in service,
22 (c) there is a justifiable excuse for failure to serve properly, and (d) the plaintiff would be
25
26

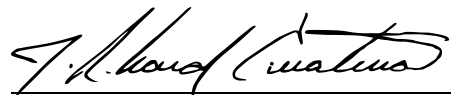

1 severely prejudiced if his complaint were dismissed.” Borzeka v. Heckler, 739 F.2d 444, 447
2 (9th Cir. 1984).

3 The court has no indication if any of the seven un-served defendants are aware of this
4 action. Further, plaintiff sent his discovery request to Defendant Schrum on or about January 5,
5 2009, (Dkt. # 50, page 1). Thus, plaintiff did not even request information to help him serve the 6 defendants until after the 120 day period had already expired. The motion for reconsideration is 7 DENIED.

9 In Plaintiff’s motion to extend the deadlines in the scheduling order he again raises the 10 issue of service of process on certain defendants (Dkt. # 51). Service in this action should have 11 been accomplished by November 29, 2008, at the latest. The motion to extend the deadlines in 12 this action is without merit and is DENIED.
13

14 Plaintiff’s motion to re-open discovery, (Dkt. # 52), like the motion to extend deadlines,
15 is based on plaintiff’s failure to serve defendants, allegedly because he did not have home
16 addresses or telephone numbers. Plaintiff has waited far too long to raise this issue. In the 17 motion plaintiff states that defendant Schrum “refused to answer any of the interrogatories.”
18 This is not a correct statement. Defendant Schrum objected to the interrogatory, but also 19 responded that she did not know the information and did not have access to the personnel files of 20 these persons. The motion to reopen discovery is DENIED.
